SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

ELIGIBILITY: applicants must be current or retired first responders residing within Lebanon County, or, the child of a current or retired first responder residing within Lebanon County who is seeking continuing education in their chosen field and will provide an essay to the WDL Board of Directors which outlines their career plans and how the education sought will be brought home to serve Lebanon County.

Lt. William D Lebo was a Lebanon City Police officer for 40 years. Tragically, he lost his life on March 31, 2022 while responding to a domestic dispute call. He was killed 30 days prior to his anticipated day of retirement. Bill served his community with honor, pride and integrity and truly loved the community he served. To keep his memory alive and to continue serving the community he loved, The William D Lebo Memorial Foundation is offering applications for continuing education scholarships.

Qualified applicants must reside in Lebanon County, be employed or retired First Responders or a child of a First Responder AND have been accepted or enrolled in a continuing education program. Continuing education is defined as college, technical school, professional education, or any approved certificate program. First responders include police, sheriff department, EMS, fire department, correctional officers, probation/parole, and emergency dispatchers.

Scholarships are a one-time offering and amounts of up to $5000 will be determined following evaluation of applications following the deadline.

Applications must be complete, legible and contain all attachments in order to be considered. Applications must be received by JUNE 6, 2025, End of Business.
